Genoa Main Street Launches Wet Paint Project with Power Washing

(LEFT-100_1856c.jpg)

Amid the mist of his efforts, Genoa Main Street volunteer Luke Allison power washes the cast iron architectural pillars on the front of one of the downtown buildings that is part of the Wet Paint project being sponsored by Genoa Main Street to improve the “curb appeal” of the downtown. The work is in preparation for painting the trim and facades of several downtown buildings on June 21 and 22. To help with the project, call Genoa Main Street at 815 784-6961. All the work will be done by volunteers under the supervision of professionals. Funding for the project is being provided by Briody Enterprises with paint donated by Sherwin Williams.
