October 16:

Jazz in the Woods & Dinner to Raise Funds for Genoa Main Street

An evening of jazz, dinner and open bar awaits attendees at the “Jazz in the Woods” fundraiser being hosted by Genoa Main Street, Inc. on Saturday evening, October 16 at Walcamp Lodge in Kingston.

Underwritten by a grant from State Farm Bank, the evening will feature young Daniel Souvigny on keyboard during the reception and dinner, followed by the father-daughter duet of Craig and Hanna Mathey as the evening’s primary entertainment.

The evening also will feature a silent auction with more than a dozen items ranging from dinner gift certificates to signed sports items.

Tickets are $30 per person and include an choice of either a chicken Kiev or vegetarian lasagna dinner and dessert. Seating is limited. The open beer and wine bar and hors d’oeuvres begins at 6 p.m. with dinner served at 6:30 p.m. For reservations call 815-784-6961, or order online at genoamainstreet.org.

Tickets also can be purchased in Genoa at Citizens First National Bank, State Farm Insurance and the Genoa Main Street office (327 West Main Street).

Ten-year-old Daniel is familiar to shoppers at Genoa’s Open Air Markets for his musical renditions by request on his electronic keyboard. The son of Steve and Vicki Bersch-Souvigny of Hampshire, he has been studying and playing piano since the age of 4. He also plays violin and guitar. He makes frequent appearances at cafes, art shows and retirement communities.
